Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Theme/Call To Worship

In our anxiety filled lives, vulgar speech can become routine. Ignoring common courtesies or not practicing simple politeness can take root. Aggressive driving can become the norm. All of these little things can progress to an attitude in which others are unimportant, where they don't count. With faith in Jesus, a pure heart, and a nature of service it is possible to clean out anything unclean hiding out in the recesses of our hearts. The "good news" is that this good, prophetic work requires no words. "Preach the Gospel," St. Francis said, "If necessary, use words."

Introduction To The Word

Deuteronomy 18:15-20: In the first reading, we hear the words of Moses to the Israelite people at the end of their forty-year desert journey around 1200 BC: "A prophet like me will the LORD, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen."

1 Corinthians 7:32-35: In today's second reading Paul offers his insights into the anxieties of daily living. He surmises that anxiety is unavoidable in life. As contemporary Christians, we continue to live in a world full of anxiety. But as Christians, we can find comfort and rest from our anxiety in listening to Jesus Christ.

Mark 1:21-28: The Gospel reading for today narrates Jesus' exorcism of a demon-possessed man. According to Mark, it was Jesus' ability to control the demons that captured people's attention: "His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee." One of the more interesting features of Jesus' dialogue with the demons in this episode and elsewhere is that the demons know Jesus' true identity, which is contrasted throughout the early chapters of Mark's Gospel with the disciples' complete lack of knowing Jesus.

FREE SEMINAR ON THE IMPORTANCE OF A WILL, ESTATE PLANNING, HEALTH CARE PROXIES, POWER OF ATTORNEY, LIVING TRUSTS AND PROBATE.

Writing a will isn't the most pleasant of tasks. That might explain why so many adults avoid this cornerstone of estate planning. According to an AARP survey, 2 out of 5 Americans over the age of 45 don't have a will. But creating a will is one of the most critical things you can do for your loved ones. Putting your wishes on paper helps your heirs avoid unnecessary hassles, and you gain the peace of mind knowing that a life's worth of possessions will end up in the right hands. What is a Will? What happens if I die without a Will? What is a Health Care Proxy or a Power of Attorney? Who should I name as my executor? What if there are minor children or grandchildren? How often does a Will need to be updated?

Please join us for a free tutorial to answer these and other questions for you.

Catholic Underground at OLG

Saturday, February 3rd 7:30pm – 10:30pm

A cultural apostolate of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal.

- The first part of the evening is Eucharistic adoration, and begins with Vespers (Evening Prayer), and ends with Benediction.
- The second part showcases Catholic artists. Here we experience the “new evangelization”.

The Underground includes music, poetry, visual art, dancers, film, drama, etc. We end our evening as we began, with the prayer of the Church. Compline (Night Prayer) is simple and beautiful. It concludes with a hymn to Our Lady, Daughter Zion, Mother of the New Jerusalem.

Preparing for Baptism: To Baptize your child, Parents MUST Pre-Register for a Preparation Meeting and Attend a Meeting on the first Tuesday evening of the month at 7:00PM in the OLG Rectory.

To Pre-Register call 212-289-1742

by 6pm on the day before the class. Baptisms take place on Sundays afternoons (12:30pm at OLG & 1pm at STM).

THE NEXT SESSION WILL BE HELD ON

The Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel – St. Thomas More cordially invites you to its “Faith in Action Talk”

Where There is Health, There is Hope an Evening with Deogratias “Deo” Niyizonkiza,
Founder and CEO, Village Health Works and, Cathryn Christensen, MD/MPH

Deo Niyizonkiza is an American citizen, born in rural Burundi. He left during the catastrophic war and survived that and homelessness New York. While working as a grocery delivery person he brought an order to St. Thomas More, where he was greeted by our very own Sharon McKenna. She recognized his needs and connected him with a family who fostered him.

He received a bachelor's degree in biochemistry and philosophy from Columbia University and continued his medical education at Dartmouth Medical School. Deo traveled back to Burundi where he established Village Health Works in December 2007. His story is chronicled in Pulitzer prize winning author Tracy Kidder’s book Strength in What Remains.

Cathryn Christensen is a Family Physician and Clinical Programs Director of Village Health Works in Burundi. Deo and Cathryn’s success in building a community-driven health and development organization is unprecedented.

We are honored to have them speak at St. Thomas More.
