Second Sunday of Lent

Theme/Call To Worship

The readings for the Second Sunday of Lent teach us the importance of listening to and trusting in the word of God. In doing so, we become God's "chosen ones."

Introduction To The Word

Genesis 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18: The first reading from the Book of Genesis is the story of Abraham's near sacrifice of his beloved son, Isaac. The opening sentence ("God put Abraham to the test") sets the context for the power of this story. The "test" was Abraham's depth of faith in God and whether Abraham would obey God's command, no matter how difficult. This story became key for the early Christians to understand Jesus' sacrificial death on the cross as the final atonement for all sin.

Romans 8:31b-34: The second reading is a short excerpt from Paul's Letter to the Romans. From the early Church Fathers to contemporary Christian theologians, Romans is widely regarded as Paul's most profound letter. The message in this section of the letter is clear enough: as "chosen ones," we have both God on our side, who loves us so much as to give his Son to us, and we have Jesus on our side, who intercedes for us to God in heaven.

Mark 9:2-10: The Gospel reading is the story of Jesus' transfiguration before the disciples. At the Transfiguration, God then tells the three disciples, "Listen to him." For the original apostles and for us Christians today, this becomes the central challenge in living out our faith. Jesus' words require us to think and act deeply and passionately about our relationships with God, self, and others. Listening to Jesus and trusting his message of salvation is not easy, but it does help us understand what it means to be God's "chosen ones."

Sunday Coffee Hour

We extend our thanks to our volunteer, Lisa Kok, for hosting this Sunday's event, which is a wonderful way for parishioners to meet and get to know one another. We look forward to meeting you there after the 10:00am Family Mass.

You are also invited to become a STM Coffee Hour Volunteer.

To volunteer, please use the following link:

The parishioner volunteers are the heart of this important community outreach program and your participation will go a long way toward insuring its success in the future.

CHILDREN'S STORY AND CRAFT

Every Sunday, after the 10am Mass. All children are invited to listen to a story and do a craft in the Rochester Room. Please help us - we need parent volunteers to read and organize activities. All materials provided!

Next Sunday's Second Collection at OLGC
is being taken to help support our Parish Operations.

Catholic Underground at OLGC Saturday, March 3rd 7:30pm – 10:30pm

A cultural apostolate of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal.

- The first part of the evening is Eucharistic adoration, and begins with Vespers (Evening Prayer), and ends with Benediction.
- The second part showcases Catholic artists. Here we experience the "new evangelization".

The Underground includes music, poetry, visual art, dancers, film, drama, etc. We end our evening as we began, with the prayer of the Church. Compline (Night Prayer) is simple and beautiful. It concludes with a hymn to Our Lady, Daughter Zion, Mother of the New Jerusalem.

Online Giving Systems are now available to All Parishioners.

To make an on-line contribution please go to the website: www.olgcstm.org and press the DONATE button connected to the church to which you wish to send your contributions.

Youth & Family Sandwich-Making

Our next sandwich-making to help fill NYCP's Sunday dinner bag service is March 11, at Noon. A great opportunity to earn community service hours while making a neighbor's life a little better. We are fortunate to again have a full group this Sunday, but sign-up for future dates is easy via the link below.
