Fifth Sunday of Easter

Theme/Call To Worship

The readings for the Fifth Sunday of Easter point to the importance of putting our faith into action. We are called to “bear much fruit” and love “in deed and truth.”

Introduction To The Word

Acts 9:26-31: In today’s first reading from Acts we hear about the immediate aftermath of Paul’s conversion. Because of Paul’s earlier persecution of the church, the other apostles were initially afraid of Paul and certainly did not trust him. It was not until the personal testimony of Barnabas that Paul won any level of acceptance among the original apostles.

I John 3:18-24: In the second reading from the First Letter of John the Apostle offers two commandments to follow. The first is “truth”: believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ. The second is “deed”: love one another as Jesus commanded.

John 15:1-8: In the Gospel reading for today, Jesus refers to himself as “the true vine,” the Father as “the vine grower,” and believers as the “branches.” As people of faith, we are called to bear fruit by preaching the good news of Christ. And Jesus reveals to us that the path of discipleship is not always easy; in fact, followers of Jesus are “pruned” like trees and shrubs in order to bear more fruit.

This Sunday's Special Collection

At the request of the Holy Father, Pope Francis, the Archdiocese of New York will take up a special Collection on April 29th, for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe to support essential unmet pastoral needs in that section of the Lord’s vineyard formerly under Soviet control. Catholic Underground at OLGC

Saturday, May 4th - 7:30pm – 10:30pm

A cultural apostolate of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal.

- The first part of the evening is Eucharistic adoration, and begins with Vespers (Evening Prayer), and ends with Benediction.
- The second part showcases Catholic artists. Here we experience the “new evangelization”.

The Underground includes music, poetry, visual art, dancers, film, drama, etc. We end our evening as we began, with the prayer of the Church. Compline (Night Prayer) is simple and beautiful. It concludes with a hymn to Our Lady, Daughter Zion, Mother of the New Jerusalem.

OLGC - First Friday - Exposition & Benediction

Parishioners are encouraged to commit to a half hour or hour block of time, from 10:30am to 12pm. If you would like to offer this commitment add your information to the clip board found in the back of the OLGC chapel.

Sunday Coffee Hour

We extend our thanks to our volunteer, Erica Maher-Silverman, for hosting this Sunday's event, which is a wonderful way for parishioners to meet and get to know one another. We look forward to meeting you there after the 10:00am Family Mass.

You are also invited to become a STM Coffee Hour Volunteer.

To volunteer, please use the following link:
