Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Theme/Call To Worship

The readings for the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time speak to the missionary call of all Christians, and teach us that many challenges lay ahead in the mission of passing on the faith.

Introduction To The Word

Amos 7:12-15: The first reading is taken from the prophet Amos, who prophesied in the northern kingdom of Israel at the cult center of Bethel about the fall of the northern kingdom of Israel and the captivity of the people of Israel. For these prophesies, Amos was expelled from Bethel, but within a few short decades of Amos' prophecies, the Assyrian Empire captured the northern kingdom of Israel.

Ephesians 1:3-14 or 1:3-10: The second reading from Paul's Letter to the Ephesians is taken from his opening address in which Paul offers a blessing to God for the many blessings he has bestowed on us. Embedded with this blessing is a Trinitarian structure in which Paul blesses God the Father, Christ and the Spirit.

Mark 6:7-13: The Gospel reading is Jesus' commissioning of the Twelve to preach the good news and to heal the sick and demon-possessed. In today's reading, the Twelve begin to carry out Jesus' command. The core of the apostles' missionary message was that of "repentance." Jesus' message about the kingdom of God (the centerpiece of his Gospel) required one to think differently, to "repent" and to trust in Jesus.

As you can see, we have begun restoring the church interior of St. Thomas More starting with repainting the walls along the side aisles and installing an improved lighting system in that area. The major part of the work, which includes cleaning the faux-stone on the front and rear walls, up-lighting the church ceiling to reveal the beautiful woodwork, and restoring the pews and floors, will take place next summer. This way we will have a minimal disruption to our religious services. We thank you in advance for your cooperation as we undertake this project.
