Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Theme/Call To Worship

Jesus is the true bread from heaven sent down by God to feed us for eternal life.

Introduction To The Word

Exodus 16:2-4, 12-15: Today's first reading takes place in the early stages of Israel's journey through the desert when the tension and panic were so high that talk of a "famine" resounded among the Israelites. God intervened on Moses' behalf, assuring Moses he would "rain down bread from heaven" not only to feed his people but also to "test" the Israelites. The divine action of sending bread from heaven became an important defining moment in Israel's sacred story and cultic identity.

Ephesians 4:17, 20-24: In the second reading from Paul's Letter to the Ephesians, Paul urged the Ephesians to "be renewed in the spirit of your minds, and put on the new self, created in God's way in righteousness and holiness of truth."

John 6:24-35: In today's Gospel Jesus teaches three important points. First, focus on the food that feeds you for "eternal life." Second, our role in the "work of God" is simply to "believe in the one he sent." The crowds' request for a sign from Jesus leads to his third and most important point: the very same God who originally sent bread from heaven through Moses to the Israelites in the desert now sends "bread ... from heaven" that "gives life to the world."

THE NEXT SESSION WILL BE HELD ON TUESDAY AUGUST 7TH

This Saturday, August 4th and Sunday, August 5th

The Missionary Sisters of Saint Charles Borromeo, Scalabrinians, will speak at each of the Masses at Our Lady of Good Counsel as part of the annual Archdiocesan Propagation of the Faith Mission Coop Program. The Congregation was founded on October 25, 1895, in Piacenza, Italy, by Blessed John Baptist Scalabrini with the collaboration of Father Joseph Marchetti and Mother Assunta Marchetti. Their mission is the evangelical and missionary service to the neediest migrants. It is carried out through religious, social and cultural activities, and manifests itself through the explicit proclamation of the Gospel, the motivation to the Christian living and of the witness of life, in the different contexts of human mobility; and by welcoming the migrant in his diversity and valuing him as the protagonist of communion among peoples.

At each of the Masses at OLGCM we will have a special second collection to aid in the mission of this Congregation

OLGCM Purgatorial Society

(Sunday Vigil Mass)

Saturday, August 4th at 5:30PM

This month, please keep the following members of the Purgatorial Society in your prayers, John Campo, Dolores Ciano, Lorillard Elliot, Stephen Justice, and Rolando Polson. May they be received by Christ and given peace.
