Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Theme/Call To Worship

The readings for today call us to rethink how we define and live out our faith in our daily lives. Is our faith simply a set of clearly defined rules to follow or is our faith lived out in a manner that truly embraces and applies God's sacred laws to our everyday lives?

Today's Gospel, an abbreviated version of Mark 7:1-23, details some of the objections raised by the critics of Jesus and his disciples. On its most basic level, the Pharisees and Scribes expressed public concern that Jesus' behavior violated the "tradition of the elders," especially some of the Jewish laws associated with purity rites and regulations. The example raised is Jesus and the disciples, after "coming from the marketplace," ate meals without washing (purifying) their hands; they ate food with "unclean hands." The mention of the "marketplace" is a reference to an area where Jews would encounter, and often interact with, Gentiles. Exposure to Gentiles, especially physical contact, would make Jews unclean. Many Jews, therefore, were very sensitive to the "marketplace." It is important to note that Jesus' response is directed to the crowds: "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile." Not only was Jesus publicly challenging the Jewish leaders' interpretation of the Mosaic law, he was also, in effect, challenging the legitimacy of the separation between Jews and Gentiles.

To Pre-Register call 212-289-1742

by 6pm on the day before the class. Baptisms take place on Sundays afternoons (12:30pm at OLG & 1pm at STM).

THE NEXT SESSION WILL BE HELD ON

TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 4TH

Parish Enrollment Drive

On Saturday, September 15th and Sunday, September 16 we are embarking on an Enroll Now drive which is a very important element of our parish revitalization.

As we are developing a number of exciting new initiatives, we do need all of our parishioners to "Stand and Be Counted", to make the archdiocese aware of the vitality of our current congregation.

On September 15th and 16th a few of your fellow parishioners will be standing outside the church at the end of mass to help you quickly register and learn what's new!

There are many opportunities we will be offering for you to become more involved in our revitalization. If you have any questions or other comments/suggestions, please feel free to contact stmparishprograms@gmail.com

We hope you accept this invitation to be an engaged part of the new beginning for the parish we all love.

Purgatorial Society

5:30pm Sunday Vigil Mass

This month, please keep the following members of the Purgatorial Society, Kathleen Frankenstein and Dr. Cely Lara, in your prayers. May they be received by Christ and given peace.

The First Saturday Devotion Group

After the 5:30 Mass

In honor of the 100th Anniversary of Fatima, and to fulfill Our Lady's request to make acts of reparation to her Immaculate Heart in atonement for the sins of the world, we gather in front of the statue of Our Lady after Mass to pray the rosary.

Catholic Underground

7:30pm – 10:30pm

A cultural apostolate of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal.

- The first part of the evening is Eucharistic adoration, and begins with Vespers (Evening Prayer), and ends with Benediction.
- The second part showcases Catholic artists. Here we experience the “new evangelization”.

The Underground includes music, poetry, visual art, dancers, film, drama, etc. We end our evening as we began, with the prayer of the Church. Compline (Night Prayer) is simple and beautiful. It concludes with a hymn to Our Lady, Daughter Zion, Mother of the New Jerusalem.

The Academy of Sacred Drama—the NY based artistic and intellectual community—presents the modern premiere of Vincenzo de Grandis’s 1682 oratorio Il Nascimento di Mose. A tyrannical Pharaoh fears the growing power of the Hebrews and orders that all male new-borns are to be thrown into the river Nile. The Academy’s performance will include a lecture by Dr. Lewis Baratz, host of Well-Tempered Baroque. This oratorio will take place on Saturday, September 15 at 7:15 p.m. at Calvary Church, 277 Park Avenue South (at East 21st Street). Tickets may be purchased online at sacreddrama.org or at the door.
