Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The readings for the Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time speak to issues of unity and exclusivity that have affected faith communities throughout the ages. Scripture teaches us to be open to God's radical nature of inclusivity.

In the Gospel reading for today, we hear that John, one of Jesus' disciples, is disturbed by an unexpected development: someone outside the circle of the disciples is successfully driving out demons in Jesus' name. Like Moses with Joshua in the first reading, Jesus teaches John an important lesson: "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us." Jesus teaches John that God works through others outside the view of our limited human vision.

The Gospel reading concludes with Jesus issuing a warning to the disciples: do not interfere with God's work of salvation. Jesus advises that it is better for someone to enter the kingdom of God lame or half-blind than "to be thrown into Gehenna." (Gehenna is the Greek transliteration of the Hebrew word gê-hinnôm—Valley of Hinnom—and is a reference to the place where children were offered as sacrifices in idolatrous cult worship during Israel's Monarchy period in the tenth century BC.) Jesus uses this intense and violent imagery to emphasize his point: Whereas human behavior and inclination is often to exclude, God's nature is to include, constantly seeking ways to save all people.

Good News

We are happy to announce that we have signed a five-year lease with the St. Thomas More Play Group.

We are delighted to continue our long relationship with the Play Group and wish them continued success in the future.

This Sunday's Special Collection The Annual Collection for Saint Joseph's Seminary

This month, Saint Joseph's Seminary begins its 122nd year focused on forming and ordaining holy, faithful, and dedicated priests, and once again I ask that you continue, through your prayers and generosity, to support the Annual Collection for Saint Joseph's Seminary. This collection provides critical funding to support the formation for the archdiocese of over forty seminarians. Our seminary is held in highest regard, and the cost of nurturing and training our future priests is an investment for tomorrow that all of us need to share. Your support of our future priests, during their time of preparation, is deeply appreciated.

With prayerful best wishes, I am,
Faithfully in Christ
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan

Children's Story & Craft: All Children are invited to listen to a story and do a craft in the Rochester Room.

Please help us – we need parent volunteers to read and organize activities. All materials provided!

The Little Sisters of the Assumption Family Health Service in East Harlem is in great need for caring, responsible After School Volunteer Tutors to assist low-academic performing East Harlem children (grades K - 3) in our After School Enrichment Program. Participants are mostly immigrant children who struggle to perform at their grade level and can't always get the help they need from their parents. Tutoring is one-on-one. No previous tutoring or teaching experience required.

Tutoring will begin the first week in October 2018. Must be willing to make at least a semester long commitment, and ideally commit also to the spring semester 2019 which ends in mid June 2019. Tutoring is on Mondays and Wednesdays from 3:30 – 4:30. Ideally, the tutor can tutor twice a week, and it would be with the same child, both days. We are located at 333 East 115th Street (between First and Second Avenues). For more information about tutoring, please contact the Volunteer Director tough@lsafhs.org.
